

Reciprocal Agreement

made this 3rd day of September Two thousand and eleven

Between THE KENNEL CLUB and

The Australian National Kennel Council Ltd

WITNESSETH as follows:

1. That the Kennel Club and the Australian National Kennel Council Ltd accept the mutual validity of the Rules and Regulations relative to their application in the country of origin.
2. That consideration may be given to the registration of any dog exported from the one country to the other provided it is registered in the originating country and is supported by an official pedigree issued by the Kennel Club of the exporting country. The decision of the General Committee on the acceptance or rejection of any dog and/or foreign breed not included in Annex A to B Regulations shall be final.
3. That the Kennel Club and the Australian National Kennel Council Ltd are to provide information on request, on the assessment and status of judges considered for appointments in each other's countries.
4. That information on matters of mutual interest and concern may be exchanged through the official channel of the Secretaries of the Kennel Club and the Australian National Kennel Council Ltd.
5. That lists of Suspended Persons are to be mutually exchanged and recognised except that the Kennel Club may reserve the right to refuse to recognise any suspension or disqualification if, in the opinion of the General Committee, the person or persons concerned do not come within the jurisdiction of the Club notifying the suspension or disqualification. The recognition of the suspension of a United Kingdom citizen by an Overseas Club shall be subject to the individual's right of appeal to the Kennel Club.
6. That either Club shall have the power to sever its connection with the other at any time if thought fit.

Signed on behalf of the Australian National Kennel Council Ltd

President
